

I believe that media conglomerates do not foster reporting of opinions that do not support corporate objectives. Concentration of media power jeopardizes the free flow of ideas and information that ultimately forms the foundation of our Democracy. Now more than ever, this is critical to our future.

Please do not weaken current regulations limiting concentration of Media control. If anything, the control of the media is too concentrated now.

Thank you.

Maurice Taquino